

Texada Software Announces Partnership With Home Hardware

LOS ANGELES, September 25, 2018 -- Texada Software has partnered with Home Hardware Stores Limited to become a preferred software vendor for the Canadian chain's nearly 1,100 stores. The independently operated stores will be able to operate their stores using Texada's SRM (Systematic Rental Management) product. Each branch that plans on utilizing SRM will be able to manage rental inventory, streamline counter operations and provide detailed reporting across the business. Texada is committed to becoming a leading technology partner for Home Hardware.

"This partnership represents an incredible opportunity for us in the home improvement and construction material space," commented Alex Kress, General Manager at Texada Software. "Home Hardware is a staple in the Canadian hardware supply marketplace, and we're excited to become their primary asset management software provider. We look forward to building a successful partnership together."
